

Evening boundaries set
Between day and night;
Enhance a sense of diversity
With colors to delight;
Flowing from the heavens
Down to the earth;
The night's rest prepares
The new day's birth;
Closing out each day
With lessons learned;
Welcome morrow's challenges
Yet to be discerned.

Slowly waking to a new day;
Gently the sun will emerge;
Light and color fill the eye.
Dreams end; slumber departs;
The day reaches out bringing:
Blessings yet to be experienced.
Challenges still to be faced.
Choose and rejoice in the one
Accept and celebrate the other.
